DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary.

Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

3. Claims 8-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Applicant's admitted prior art in view of U.S. Patent No. 5,346,518 to Baseman et al.

4. Applicant's admitted prior art discloses a cassette substantially as claimed in Figures 1-3 and comprising: an outer casing (102) with a front surface (140) having a plurality of slots (100) and two sides surfaces (130A and 130B) having a plurality of holes (104); a plurality of braces (106) positioned at corner edges inside the outer casing; a plurality of side plates (108) attached to the braces corresponding to each slot for supporting a substrate.

5. However, Applicant's admitted prior art fails to disclose a plurality of obstruction pieces positioned inside the outer casing to block the holes.

6. Baseman et al. teaches the use of obstruction pieces (Figure 15, 138) positioned in a hole of a surface of a cassette (40) for the purpose of precluding vapor contamination from entering the cassette (column 18, row 57 through column 19, row 10).

Art Unit: 1763

7. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the Applicant's invention was made to have provide an obstruction piece in a hole of Applicant's admitted prior art in order to preclude contamination from entering the cassette as taught by Baseman et al.

8. With respect to claim 9, Applicant's admitted prior art further discloses the cassette comprising a plurality of horizontal screw sets (300), and each set of horizontal screws engages with a bottom plate of the outer casing near the hole. See Figures 1-3.

9. With respect to claim 10, each obstruction piece comprises a fixed part (146) and an obstructing part (140, 142, 142'), the fixed part is firmly attached to the outer casing and the obstructing part blocks the corresponding hole. See Figure 16 of Baseman et al.

10. With respect to claim 11, the fixed part of the obstruction pieces are L-shaped (see Figure 16).

11. With respect to claim 12, the braces are set on all four corners inside the outer casing and the side plates are attached to all four braces and correspond with each slot on the same horizontal plane (see Figures 1-3 of Applicant's admitted prior art).

12. With respect to claim 13, the four side plates within the outer casing on the same horizontal plane corresponding to each slot support the corners of the substrate (see Figures 1-3 of Applicant's admitted prior art).

Allowable Subject Matter

13. Claims 1-7 are allowed.

14. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record fails to teach or fairly suggest a cassette for hold substrates as claimed and specifically comprising: a plurality of obstruction pieces positioned inside an outer casing of the cassette corresponding to holes at a bottom section of the sidewalls of the outer casing, wherein each obstruction piece comprises a fixed part and an obstructing part, the fixed part attaches firmly to a bottom plate of the outer casing, and the obstructing part blocks the corresponding hole.

Art Unit: 1763

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

15. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. USP 5,638,958 and USP 6,540,467 disclose a cassettes for keeping wafers in place in a cassette and thus preventing damage to the wafers.
